

Hucklow Primary School

Poet of the Month....

Joshua Seigal!

He is an award-winning poet, performer and educator who uses poetry to develop literacy skills and inspire confidence and creativity in communication.

He has worked in hundreds of schools, nurseries, libraries, theatres and festivals around the country.

He performed his poems at the 2012 London Olympics! How cool is that?

Michael Rosen describes him as 'magical' and his favourite poet of all!

His poems will make you belly laugh!

As a child he studied poetry at school but didn't feel that the words were jumping off the page, speaking to him. His love of poetry grew over time and he's keen to show children that poetry can be entertaining and inspiring. He now loves poetry!
