

RE Subject Overview 2015 - 2016

RE is Core Subject at Hucklow. RE enables children to develop knowledge and understanding of a range of religions and world views that reflect the school, local and global community. Children will be able to develop their ideas, values and identity and develop understanding of British values of individual liberty and mutual respect and tolerance of others.

Speaking, listening and communication is promoted while children talk about their own beliefs , ideas, values and experiences while respecting the right of others to have different values, beliefs and ways of life.

RE is taught either an hour a week or the equivalent over theme days. Children will evidence their learning in art, writing, photographs, music ,technology and speaking and listening. This will be recorded in Curriculum books and Class Handbooks.
